What people are saying about Campus Education Week

The Jarvis Family

"As our eight children would see the excitement we felt for Education Week, they all wanted to come when they got old enough. It was almost like a rite of passage. And then they passed that on to their children. And so all our grandchildren, when they get old enough to come, it's exciting for them too. We love it. I feel so happy that we started this tradition because now it's gone on through the generations and has been such a blessing to our family."

Joyce and Elias

"We have been coming to Education for thirty-plus years because it's such a great experience. You can feel the spirit so much when you're here on campus, and the things you learn are amazing. The classes give us so much hope. We're just like everyone else, not perfect, but the hope that it gives us is why we're here—to just do better."

Sharon and Carole

"My sister and I always come to Education Week. We have been making it a sister get-together for 20+ years. You get the depth of the gospel, the association with people with such great knowledge, which helps teach classes at home from the knowledge that you get here. It's a delight to come this time of year."

Joshua and Amy

"When you come to Education Week it's a week full of feeling the spirit and you're just uplifted. It's a great feeling. It's kind of a reminder that you constantly have to build your testimony because if you're not building your testimony it's going the opposite way. It has been a huge reminder here this week. It's awesome here and fun. You make a lot of friends."
We are pleased to welcome you to Campus Education Week, a program now in its 94th year, offering nearly 1,000 classes to strengthen and enrich your life! Education Week brings together 230 presenters, more than 600 volunteers, and hundreds of Brigham Young University employees to provide a unique, outstanding educational experience.

This year’s theme, “Assist individuals in their quest for perfection and eternal life,” is taken from the opening sentence of the BYU Mission Statement. It serves as a guide for the University, but it can also be a guide for presenters and for each person in attendance. As you learn throughout the week, and gain a stronger testimony of the gospel of Jesus Christ, our hope is that you will follow President Brigham Young’s counsel to “put forth your ability to learn as fast as you can, and gather all the strength of mind and principle of faith you possibly can, and then distribute your knowledge to the people” (JD 8:146). We invite you to join us for classes that can strengthen your faith, increase your knowledge, and help you bless the lives of those around you.

Education Week presentations are designed for youth and adults, women and men, and single and married individuals. With classes available in a great variety of subjects—gospel principles, the arts, family and marriage relationships, finance, personal development, technology, health, and many others—you have an opportunity to learn much that will motivate, encourage, strengthen, and rejuvenate.

We are confident that as you attend the program and benefit from the resources and atmosphere of Brigham Young University, you will have a rewarding and uplifting experience.

Sincerely,

H. Bruce Payne, Program Administrator

Advice from Longtime Education Week Attendees

- Mark first- and second-choice class preferences for each hour.
- Bring a light sweater—some classrooms are cooler than others. And wear comfortable shoes!
- Carry a small notebook or tablet for class notes. Rather than trying to write down everything, write the things that are most meaningful to you.
- Take advantage of new learning opportunities by attending one or two classes each year you would not typically choose.
- Visit with the people around you. It’s a good way to get to know good people, and they may recommend great classes you might otherwise miss.
- Avoid lines by using restrooms in buildings and on floors where classes are not held.
- Ask a friend or family member to drop you off at BYU each day. If this is not possible, save time by parking west of the stadium and taking a shuttle.

Classroom Etiquette

The following guidelines show respect and courtesy for everyone and provide a pleasant atmosphere during Education Week.

- Remember to silence your cell phone before class begins.
- Please follow the directions of the hosting staff—they help maintain the order needed for a successful program.
- Remember that classes are first-come, first-served, and saving seats is not permitted.
- Position your name badge so the hosting staff can readily see it.
- Other than water, please do not eat or drink in the classrooms.
- Lectures may not be recorded or transmitted. Taking photographs during a lecture is discouraged—it distracts the presenter and those around you and could violate copyright laws.
- Ask questions or make comments only when invited to do so by the presenter.
- Refrain from asking presenters about their published works. The BYU Store Annex will be in the lower level of the BYU Store. It carries items the presenters recommend for Education Week students.
- Please do not leave class early or applaud after testimonies.

Thank you! We hope you enjoy Education Week!

“South Pacific” is one of the greatest musicals of the 20th century. Set in an island paradise during World War II, two parallel love stories are threatened by the dangers of prejudice and war. The show comes alive through well-known songs by Rodgers and Hammerstein, including “Some Enchanted Evening,” “I’m Gonna Wash That Man Right Outa My Hair,” “Happy Talk,” “Bali Hai,” “Younger than Springtime,” and “I’m in Love with a Wonderful Guy.” This is an entertaining story of love, loss, happiness, and the eventual triumph over cultural prejudice. — A SCERA Production. Directed by Jerry Elison.
The Nashville Tribute Band brings together amazing artists and musicians who use their talent to testify of the Savior, the Restoration of the gospel through the Prophet Joseph Smith, the sacrifices of pioneers, and the blessings of missionary work. Award-winning songwriter and Nashville record producer Jason Deere regularly invites a revolving cast of talented artists and musicians to join him in touring the world and performing the stories and songs from their tribute albums. Jason will be joined by Dan Truman (of the Grammy Award-winning group Diamond Rio), and Matt Lopez, Tim Gates, and Brad Hull of the country band Due West. They will present an evening of music and inspiration you do not want to miss!
Jenny Oaks Baker and Family Four will present an evening of exhilarating music, featuring popular, inspirational, soul-filling, and stirring songs. Joining them is guest artist Daron Bradford on woodwinds. They will perform “A Whole New World,” “Ode to Joy,” “O Fortuna” from Carmina Burana, “Nessun Dorma,” “Abide with Me,” “Kashmir,” “Copland Medley,” “Amazing Grace,” “Far and Away,” “Scarborough Fair,” “Tale as Old as Time” from Beauty and the Beast, “Love Is Spoken Here,” Paul McCartney’s “Yesterday,” and others. You are sure to enjoy this fabulous evening of entertainment!

VOLUNTEER HOSTING STAFF NEEDED
Hosting is an enjoyable and rewarding experience, as evidenced by the hundreds of volunteers who return each year. In exchange for their service, hosts receive complimentary class admission for the week. To volunteer, complete the short application on our website (educationweek.byu.edu) by August 1 (or until hosting shifts are filled). Please note the following hosting information:

- Tuesday through Friday standard shifts are 8:00 to 11:45 a.m., 11:30 a.m. to 3:15 p.m., 2:45 to 6:15 p.m., and 6:00 to 9:30 p.m. Monday shifts are 8:00 a.m. to 12:15 p.m. and 12:00 p.m. to 4:15 p.m.

The Maurine R. and Joseph A. Humphris Fund for Single Parents
Through generous donations by the late Maurine and Joseph Humphris and others, an award program has been established to help single parents attend Education Week. Please apply through our website by July 22, 2016. Applicants must meet the following criteria:

1. Be a single parent;
2. Be the guardian of one or more children under the age of 14; and
3. Demonstrate financial need.

GENERAL INFORMATION
DRESS STANDARDS
Participants are asked to uphold BYU standards of dress and conduct while attending Education Week. The dress and grooming of men, women, and youth should be neat, clean, and modest, consistent with the standards of Brigham Young University and The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Clothing should be modest in fabric, fit, style, and length. Clothing which is sleeveless, strapless, or revealing is not acceptable. Skirts, dresses, and shorts should be knee length or longer. See the Education Week website for details.

ASSESS YOUR HEALTH
Before attending the program, please carefully assess your health condition in light of the heat, altitude, large crowds, stairs, and possible long walking distances between classes.

EMERGENCY HEALTH CARE
For the most immediate emergency response while at the program, call 801-422-2222 to reach BYU Police, or call 911 for emergency services. The Student Health Center (SHC) is available to Education Week students in case of accident or sudden illness. Regular business hours are 8:00 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Monday through Friday, and 8:00 a.m. to noon on Saturday. Proof of Education Week registration is required to receive health services. You must pay for treatment when you receive it. The Student Health Center is not a Medicare or Medicaid provider.

INFORMATION DESKS
Information desks are located at the WSC Garden Court, Marriott Center, and several outdoor locations across campus. Hosting staff can also help you.

INFORMATION UPDATES
Daily updates, available Tuesday through Friday mornings at the information desks, list class changes and other important information and events of the day.
FOOD AND DRINK IN CLASSROOMS
With the exception of the Marriott Center, food and drink may not be consumed in classrooms, including the Smith Fieldhouse. Water bottles are permitted in all classrooms.

NO RECORDING OF LECTURES
Lectures may not be recorded or transmitted. Taking photographs during a lecture is discouraged because it distracts both the presenter and others around you and could violate copyright laws.

CELL PHONES
Please be considerate by not using cell phones in the classrooms.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT FINANCIAL CLASSES
The information presented in Campus Education Week financial classes is intended to be general information to help you make better-informed decisions and should not be relied upon as a substitute for professional advice regarding your financial planning. Before you make any investment (or other financial commitment, including insurance), you should consult with your own financial advisor. Neither Campus Education Week nor Brigham Young University accepts any responsibility for decisions students make based on information presented in these classes.

PERSONAL COUNSELING REQUESTS
You are welcome to speak with faculty members after their presentations; however, please do not ask for personal counsel, advice, or help from the faculty. Individuals should seek counsel from their local priesthood leaders or clergy regarding personal problems or concerns.

LOST AND FOUND
Found items, including Education Week name badges, should be taken to the hosting table of the building in which they are found. At the end of each day, all items are taken to the BYU Lost and Found office (1080 WSC, 801-422-3024). Hours are Monday through Friday, 9:00 a.m. to 5:45 p.m., and Saturday from 8:00 a.m. to noon.

NO PRIVATE VENDORS OR FLYERS
Distribution of flyers or advertising brochures of any type is prohibited on university property. Likewise, private vendors are not allowed on university property.

HELP WITH DISABILITIES
BYU is committed to providing reasonable accommodations for people with qualified disabilities. Before registration and at least 30 days before the program begins, discuss your individual situation with the program coordinator.

Standard LDS hearing-impaired receivers on the “red” channel (channel A) work in the Marriott Center. If you bring a personal receiver, headset, and batteries, your set will operate in the Marriott Center. If you need technical help with your set, see the engineers at the sound booth inside Portal H. Several buildings on campus are also set up for receivers, which may be checked out from 2170 WSC.

PUBLIC ACCESS COMPUTERS
Computers are available in 1111 WSC and in the HBLL Learning Commons, near the Information and Help Desk on the main floor, from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday.

INTERNET ACCESS
Education Week participants have free guest access to the Internet via wireless network access in most academic buildings (including the WSC), classrooms and student common areas on campus. This service is not available in student housing residences except in the common areas. Education Week makes no guarantee of service. The guest wireless network is an unsecured connection; participants are advised to use caution when sending confidential information over a wireless network. To connect to the wireless network, choose BYU GUEST from the list of available networks on your mobile device. No password is needed to access BYU GUEST.

If you need help, visit the Education Week Hosting Desk in the WSC Garden Court. Help Desk hours during the program are from 7:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. on Monday and 7:00 a.m. to 8:30 p.m., Tuesday through Friday. The BYU Store has a computer repair center that may be able to help you with hardware problems, for a fee.

PROGRAM EVALUATIONS
Education Week welcomes participant feedback and suggestions. Submit an online evaluation of your Education Week experience at educationweek.byu.edu between August 15 and September 6, 2016.

TRANSPORTATION AND PARKING
Most parking for Education Week students is located in the perimeter lots north of campus. Parking areas for Education Week students are marked in blue on the campus map found on page 67. Please heed the signs in each lot and do NOT park in red zones; in spaces designated for service vehicles, disabled persons, or other specified personnel; in timed zones; or outside painted parking stalls. Vehicles parked in unauthorized areas will be ticketed or towed at the owner’s expense. Again for 2016—we will offer direct, expanded shuttle service from the West Stadium Lot to campus. See the map on page 67. For RV parking, see “Housing Information.”
COURTESY SHUTTLE VANS
Primarily to assist senior and disabled students, courtesy vans run between specified campus locations from 7:45 a.m. to 4:45 p.m. on Monday; 7:45 a.m. to 10:00 p.m. (or until after the evening performances) on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Friday; and 7:45 a.m. to 11:00 p.m. on Thursday (see map on page 67). Van routes take participants to key destination points, but they cannot take you directly to the door. You are responsible for moving from class to class or to a parking lot or residence hall. Shuttles run regularly between perimeter parking lots and main campus; shuttles also run directly from the West Stadium Lot to campus. Van stops are marked on the campus map on page 67, and large, detailed route maps are posted at each van stop and at Education Week information desks. Again for 2016—we will offer direct, expanded shuttle service from the West Stadium Lot to campus (see the map on page 67). One wheelchair-accessible van is available. To contact the driver of this van, call 385-335-3143 and tell the driver at which shuttle stop you are located.

AIRLINE FLIGHTS and GROUND TRANSPORTATION
Airline flights may be arranged through BYU Travel Management Services at 801-422-3872. Mention that you are attending Campus Education Week. Express Shuttle (800-397-0773) has multiple fleet vehicles and offers ground transportation from the Salt Lake City International Airport to the Provo area. Riverwoods Shuttle (801-691-0978) offers ground transportation from both the Salt Lake and Provo airports.

PUBLIC TRANSPORTATION
Call 888-743-3882 or visit www.rideuta.com for bus route time schedules and information.

HOUSING
ON-CAMPUS HOUSING
Housing registration by telephone is available through August 5 or until housing is filled. Please see the Education Week website for housing information. After July 22 and based on availability, single housing spaces are available (no groups or roommates). Call 801-422-8925 to check current availability.

HOTELS and MOTELS
Information about hotels and motels in the Provo area is available at educationweek.byu.edu. BYU Travel Management Services (801-422-3872) also provides lodging information and can help you make hotel reservations.

RV PARKS
For a list of local RV parks and campgrounds, visit educationweek.byu.edu.

RV PARKING
We encourage you to stay in local campgrounds designed for RVs. While it is not encouraged, RVs are permitted to park in lot 37, north of the Indoor Practice Facility (see map). RV parking is restricted both day and night to this lot only. RV parking on campus is available for completely self-contained RVs only and is permitted beginning Saturday, August 13, on a first-come, first-served basis. Lot 37 is a parking lot only; there are no restrooms, showers, hook-ups, or dump sites. Restrooms and showers in the student housing areas may not be used by participants staying in RVs. We also ask that you not bring pets onto campus property. When using the parking area, you must keep it free of litter, assure that your vehicle does not leak, keep awnings contained so traffic is not impeded, be sure you do not attach anything to structures, fixtures, or surfaces, and keep RVs inside parking stalls as much as possible. Shuttle vans run between lot 37 and main campus.

South Pacific is one of the greatest musicals of the 20th century. Set in an island paradise during World War II, two parallel love stories are threatened by the dangers of prejudice and war. The show comes alive through well-known songs by Rodgers and Hammerstein, including “Some Enchanted Evening,” “I’m Gonna Wash That Man Right Outa My Hair,” “Happy Talk,” “Bali Ha’i,” “Younger than Springtime,” and “I’m in Love with a Wonderful Guy.” This is an entertaining story of love, loss, happiness, and the eventual triumph over cultural prejudice. —A SCERA Production, Directed by Jerry Elison.

The Nashville Tribute Band brings together amazing artists and musicians who use their talent to testify of the Savior, the Restoration of the gospel through the Prophet Joseph Smith, the sacrifices of pioneers, and the blessings of missionary work. Award-winning songwriter and Nashville record producer Jason Deere regularly invites a revolving cast of talented artists and musicians to join him in touring the world and performing the stories and songs from their tribute albums. Jason will be joined by Dan Truman (of the Grammy Award-winning group Diamond Rio), and Matt Lopez, Tim Gates, and Brad Hull of the country band Due West. They will present an evening of music and inspiration you do not want to miss!

Jenny Oaks Baker and Family Four will present an evening of exhilarating music, featuring popular, inspirational, soul-filling, and stirring songs. Joining them is guest artist Daron Bradford on woodwinds. They will perform “A Whole New World,” “Ode to Joy,” “O Fortuna” from Carmina Burana, “Nessun Dorma,” “Abide with Me,” “Kashmir,” “Copland Medley,” “Amazing Grace,” “Far and Away,” “Scarborough Fair,” “Tale as Old as Time” from Beauty and the Beast, “Love Is Spoken Here,” Paul McCartney’s “Yesterday,” and others. You are sure to enjoy this fabulous evening of entertainment!
